12. Power of Inspector-General to make rules.—The Inspector-General of Police may, from time to time, subject to the approval of the [13][State Government], frame such orders and rules as he shall deem expedient relative to the organization, classification and distribution of the police-force, the places at which the members of the force shall reside, and the particular services to be performed by them; their inspection, the description of arms, accoutrements and other necessaries to be furnished to them; the collecting and communicating by them of intelligence and information; and all such other orders and rules relative to the police-force as the Inspector-General shall, from time to time, deem expedient for preventing abuse or neglect of duty, and for rendering such force efficient in the discharge of its duties.

13. Additional police-officer employed at cost of individuals.—It shall be lawful for the Inspector-General of Police, or any Deputy Inspector-General, or Assistant Inspector-General, or for the District Superintendent, subject to the general direction of the Magistrate of the district, on the application of any person showing the necessity thereof, to depute any additional number of police-officers to keep the peace at any place within the general police-district, and for such time as shall be deemed proper. Such force shall be exclusively under the orders of the District Superintendent, and shall be at the charge of the person making the application:

Provided that it shall be lawful for the person on whose application such deputation shall have been made, on giving one month's notice in writing to the Inspector-General, Deputy Inspector-General, or Assistant Inspector-General, or to the District Superintendent, to require that the police-officers so deputed shall be withdrawn; and such person shall be relieved from the charge of such additional force from the expiration of such notice.

14. Appointment of additional force in the neighbourhood of railway and other works.—Whenever any railway, canal or other public work, or any manufactory or commercial concern shall be carried on, or be in operation in any part of the country, and it shall appear to the Inspector-General that the employment of an additional police-force in such place is rendered necessary by the behaviour or reasonable apprehension of the behaviour of the persons employed upon such work, manufactory or concern, it shall be lawful for the Inspector-General, with the consent of the [14][State Government], to depute such additional force to such place, and to employ the same so long as such necessity shall continue, and to make orders, from time to time, upon the person having the control or custody of the funds used in carrying on such work, manufactory or concern, for the payment of the extra force so rendered necessary, and such person shall thereupon cause payment to be made accordingly.

[15][15. Quartering of additional police in disturbed or dangerous districts.—(1) It shall be lawful for the <sup>1</sup>[State Government], by proclamation to be notified in the Official Gazette, and in such other manner as the <sup>1</sup>[State Government] shall direct, to declare that any area subject to its authority has been found to be in a disturbed or dangerous state, or that, from the conduct of the inhabitants of such area or of any class or section of them, it is expedient to increase the number of police.

(2) It shall thereupon be lawful for the Inspector-General of Police, or other officer authorised by the <sup>1</sup>[State Government] in this behalf, with the sanction of the <sup>1</sup>[State

Government], to employ any police-force in addition to the ordinary fixed complement to be quartered in the area specified in such proclamation as aforesaid.

(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (5) of this section, the cost of such additional policeforce shall be borne by the inhabitants of such area described in the proclamation.

4. The Magistrate of the district, after such enquiry as he may deem necessary, shall apportion such cost among the inhabitants who are, as aforesaid, liable to bear the same and who shall not have been exempted under the next succeeding sub-section. Such apportionment shall be made according to the Magistrate's judgement of the respective means within such area of such inhabitants.
5. It shall be lawful for the <sup>1</sup>[State Government] by order to exempt any persons or class or section of such inhabitants from liability to bear any portion of such cost.
6. Every proclamation issued under sub-section (1) of this section shall state the period for which it is to remain in force, but it may be withdrawn at any time or continued from time to time for a further period or periods as the <sup>1</sup>[State Government] may in each case think fit to direct.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, “inhabitants” shall include persons who themselves or by their agents or servants occupy or hold land or other immoveable property within such area, and landlords who themselves or by their agents or servants collect rents direct from raiyats or occupiers in such area, notwithstanding that they do not actually reside therein.]

[16] [15A. Awarding compensation to sufferers from misconduct of inhabitants or persons interested in land.—(1) If, in any area in regard to which any proclamation notified under the last preceding section is in force, death or grievous hurt or loss of, or damage to, property has been caused by or has ensued from the misconduct of the inhabitants of such area or any class or section of them it shall be lawful for any person, being an inhabitant of such area, who claims to have suffered injury from such misconduct to make, within one month from the date of the injury or such shorter period as may be prescribed, an application for compensation to the Magistrate of the district or of the sub-division of a district within which such area is situated.

2. It shall thereupon be lawful for the Magistrate of the district, with the sanction of the [17][State Government] after such enquiry as he may deem necessary, and whether any additional police-force has or has not been quartered in such area under the last preceding section, to—
  - a. declare the persons towhom injury has been caused by or has ensued from such misconduct;
  - b. fix the amount of compensation to be paid to such persons and the manner in which it is to be distributed among them; and
  - c. assess the proportion in which the same shall be paid by the inhabitants of such area other than the applicant who shall not have been exempted from liability to pay under the next succeeding sub-section:

Provided that the Magistrate shall not make any declaration or assessment under this sub-section, unless he is of opinion that such injury as aforesaid has arisen from a riot or unlawful assembly within such area, and that the person who suffered the injury was himself free from blame in respect of the occurrences which led to such injury.

3. It shall be lawful for the <sup>1</sup>[State Government], by order, to exempt any persons or class or section of such inhabitants from liability to pay any portion of such compensation.

(4)Every declaration or assessment made or order passed by the Magistrate of the district under sub-section (2) shall be subject to revision by the Commissioner of the

Division or the <sup>1</sup>[State Government], but save as aforesaid shall be final.

5. No civil suit shall be maintainable in respect of any injury for which compensation has been awarded under this section.
6. Explanation.—In this section the word “inhabitants” shall have the same meaning as in the last preceding section.]

STATE AMENDMENT

Uttar Pradesh

Amendment of section 34-A of Act No. 5 of 1861— For section 34-A of the Police Act, 1861, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

“34-A. Compounding of offences under sections 32 and 34.—An offence punishable under section 32 or section 34 may, subject to any general or special order of the State Government in this behalf, be compounded by the District Superintendent of Police, either before or after the institution of the prosecution, on realization of such amount of composition fee as he thinks fit, not exceeding the maximum amount of fine fixed for the offence, and when the offence is so compounded—”

- i. before the institution of the prosecution, the offender shall not be liable to prosecution for such offence and shall, if in custody, be set at liberty ;
- ii. before the institution of the prosecution, the composition shall amount to acquittal of the offender.”

[Vide the Uttar Pradesh Act 35 of 1979, s. 5]

Abatement of certain trials.— Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, —

1. the trial of an accused for —

(a) an offence punishable under —

“(i) the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988; or”

ii. the Public Gambling Act, 1867, not being an offence punishable under section 3 of that

Act or an offence in respect of wagering punishable under section 13 of that Act; or

iii. section 34 of the Police Act, 1861; or

iv. section 160 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860; or

(b) any other offence punishable with fine only, or

2. a procedure, under section 107 or section 109 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, pending before a Magistrate on the date of commencement of this Act from before “December 31, 2015” shall abate.

[Vide the Uttar Pradesh Act 35 of 1979, s. 9, and amended by Uttar Pradesh Act 29 of 2016 and 9 of 2018]

35. Jurisdiction.—[39]** Any charge against a police-officer above the rank of a constable under this Act shall be enquired into and determined only by an officer exercising the powers of a [40]Magistrate.
36. Power to prosecute under other law not affected.—Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to prevent any person from being prosecuted under any other Regulation or Act for any offence made punishable by this Act, or from being liable under any other Regulation or Act or any other or higher penalty or punishment than is provided for such offence by this Act:

Proviso.—Provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

[41][37. Recovery of penalties and fines imposed by Magistrates.—The provisions of sections 64 to 70, both inclusive, of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860), and of sections 386 to 389, both inclusive, of the [42][43][44]Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882 (10 of 1882), with respect to fines, shall apply to penalties and fines imposed under this Act on conviction before Magistrate:

Provided that, notwithstanding anything contained in section 65 of the first-mentioned Code, any person sentenced to fine under section 34 of this Act may be imprisoned in default of payment of such fine for any period not exceeding eight days.]

41. [Rewards to police and informers payable to General Police Fund.] Rep. by the A. O. 1937.

[45]42 Limitation of actions.—All actions and prosecutions against any person, which may be lawfully brought for anything done or intended to be done under the provisions of this Act, or under the general police-powers hereby given shall be commenced within three months after the act complained of shall have been committed, and not otherwise; and notice in writing of such action end of the cause thereof shall be given to the defendant, or to the District Superintendent or an Assistant District Superintendent of the District in which the act was committed, one month at least before the commencement of the action.

Tender of amends.—No plaintiff shall recover in any such action if tender of sufficient amend shall have been made before such action brought, or if a sufficient sum of money shall have been paid into Court after such action brought, by or on behalf of the defendant, and, though a decree shall be given for the plaintiff in any such action, such plaintiff shall not have costs against the defendant, unless the Judge before whom the trial is held shall certify his approbation of the action.

Proviso.—Provided always that no action shall in any case lie where such officers shall have been prosecuted criminally for the same act.

43. Plea that act was done under warrant.—When any action or prosecution shall be brought or any proceedings held against any police-officer for any act done by him in such capacity, it shall be lawful for him to plead that such act was done by him under the authority of a warrant issued by a Magistrate.

Such plea shall be proved by the production of the warrant directing the act, and purporting to be signed by such Magistrate and the defendant shall thereupon be entitled to a decree in his favour, notwithstanding any defect of jurisdiction in such Magistrate. No proof of the signature of such Magistrate shall be necessary, unless the Court shall see reason to doubt its being genuine:

Proviso.—Provided always that any remedy which the party may have against the authority issuing such warrant shall not be affected by anything contained in this section.

44. Police-officers to keep diary.—It shall be the duty of every officer in charge of a police-station to keep a general diary in such form shall, from time to time, be prescribed by the <sup>1</sup>[State Government] and to record therein all complaints and charges preferred, the names of all persons arrested, the names of the complainants, the offences charged against them, the weapons or property that shall have been taken from their possession or otherwise, and the names of the witnesses who shall have been examined.

The Magistrate of the district shall be at liberty to call for and inspect such diary.

45. State Government may prescribe form of returns.—The <sup>1</sup>[State Government] may direct the submission of such returns by the Inspector-General and other police-officers as to such <sup>1</sup>[State Government] shall seem proper, and may prescribe the form in which such returns shall be made.

<sup>2</sup>[46.Scope of Act.—(1) This Act shall not by its own operation take effect in any <sup>3</sup>presidency, <sup>4</sup>[State] or place. But the <sup>5</sup>[State Government] by an order to be published in the Official Gazette may extend the whole or any part of this Act to any presidency, <sup>4</sup>[State] or place, and the whole or such portion of this Act as shall be specified in such order shall thereupon take effect in such presidency, <sup>4</sup>[State] or place.

  3. the North and South Lushai Hills and the tract known as Rutton Puiya's villages including Demagri (now known as the Lushai Hills) see Gazette of India, 1898, Pt. 1, p. 370.
3. Subs. by the A.O. 1950, for “Province”.
  4. Subs. by the A.O. 1950, for “Provincial Government” which had been subs. by the A.O. 1937, for “G.G. in C.”.

(2)When the whole or any part of this Act shall have been extended, the [46][State Government] may, from time to time, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules consistent with this Act—

- a. to regulate the procedure to be followed by Magistrates and police-officers in the discharge of any duty imposed upon them by or under this Act;
  - b. to prescribe the time, manner and conditions within and under which claims for compensation under section 15A are to be made, the particulars to be stated in such claims, the manner in which the same are to be verified, and the proceedings (including local enquiries if necessary) which are to be taken consequent thereon; and

c. generally, for giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(3) All rules made under this Act may from time to time be amended, added to or cancelled by the

47. Authority of District Superintendent of Police over village police.—It shall be lawful for the <sup>1</sup>[State Government] in carrying this Act into effect in any part of the territories subject to such <sup>1</sup>[State Government], to declare that any authority which now is or may be exercised by the Magistrate of the district over any village-watchman to or other village police-officer for the purposes of police, shall be exercised, subject to the general control of the Magistrate of the district, by the District Superintendent of Police.
