STATE AMENDMENT Maharashtra

Insertion of new sections 12A and 12B in Act I of 1871.—In the principal act, after section 12, the following new sections shall be inserted, namely:—

“12A. Security in respect of impounded cattle.—(1) In any local area to which the state Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, apply this section, every pound-keeper shall, before releasing any impounded cattle, require the owner of the impounded cattle or his agent to make, in the form to be prescribed by the State Government, a declaration regarding the ownership of such cattle and to deposit by way of security such sum as the state Government may, by rules, prescribe, Different scales may be prescribed for different areas or different classes of cattle.

2. If any cattle belonging to such owner are impounded within a period of six months from the date on which the security is deposited, and if the seizure is not adjudged illegal, the amount of deposit or a part thereof, as may be directed by the State Government by rules made in this behalf, shall stand forfeited to the State Government. If cattle are not impounded as aforesaid, the amount of security deposit shall, on an application may by or on behalf of the depositor, be refunded to him on the expiry of that period.

3. On every occasion on which the release of the cattle impounded under this Act is claimed, the owner of the cattle shall deposit a fresh security.

12B. Removal of cattle to specified places.—(1) If in any local area to which the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette apply this section, a Mamlatdar, Tahsildar, Naib-Tahsildar or Mahalkari is satisfied—

- i. that the grazing land set apart for the use of cattle of one or more village in the taluks, tahsils or mahal under his jurisdiction is insufficient for the cattle belonging to the permanent residents of such village or villages; or
- ii. that the crops or grass standing on any agricultural land or grazing land so set apart are likely to be damaged by cattle belonging to persons who are not residents of such village or villages and who own more than twenty head of cattle,

he may—

- a. in any case referred to in clause (i) direct any such resident owner, by special or general order, to remove or cause to be removed all or any dry or useless cattle belonging to him to such place or places within the State and within such period as may be specified in the order, and
 - b. in any case referred to in clause (ii) direct any such non-resident owner, by special or general order, to remove or cause to be removed all or any of his cattle to such place or places within the state and within such period as may be specified in the order.

2. If the owner of the cattle fails to remove the cattle as directed under sub-section (1), the Mamlatdar, Tahsildar, Naib-Tahsildar or Mahalkari, as the case may be, may direct a police officer not below the rank of a head constable to remove or cause to be removed such cattle to the place or places specified in the order.
3. If the Mamlatdar, Tahsildar, Naib-Tahsildar or Mahalkari is satisfied that the order issued by him under sub-section (1) is contravened by any owner or keeper of cattle, he may impose a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees. Any fine so imposed may, on failure of such owner or keeper to pay the same within the specified time, be recovered by sale of all or any of the cattle ordered to be removed under sub-section (1).”

[Vide Bombay Act XIII of 1959, s. 5]

Maharashtra In section 12,—

- a. the words “head of” shall be deleted;
- b. for the words “Different scales may be prescribed for different local area” the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“Progressively increasing scales may be prescribed in respect of cattle belonging to or kept by the same person according to the number of cattle impounded at a time and the number of times such cattle are impounded and different scales may be prescribed for different local areas.”; [Vide Maharashtra Act XXXIV of 1950, s. 2]

CHAPTER IV

DELIVERY OR SALE OF CATTLE

13. Procedure when owner claims the cattle and pays fines and charges.—If the owner of the impounded cattle or his agent appear and claim the cattle, the poundkeeper shall deliver them to him on payment of the fines and charges incurred in respect of such cattle.

The owner or his agent, on taking back the cattle, shall sign a receipt for them in the register kept by the pound-keeper.

STATE AMENDMENT Maharashtra

Amendment of section 13 of Act 1 of 1871.—In the principal Act, to the first paragraph of section 13, the following shall be added, namely:—

14. Image not found or type unknown Procedure if cattle be not claimed within a week.—If the cattle be not claimed within seven days from the date of their being impounded, the pound-keeper shall report the fact to the officer in charge of the nearest police-station, or to such other officer as the Magistrate of the District appoints in this behalf.

Such officer shall thereupon stick up in a conspicuous part of his office a notice stating—

- a. the number and description of the cattle,
- b. the place where they were seized,

- c. the place where they are impounded, and shall cause proclamation of the same to be made by beat of drum in the village and at the market-place nearest to the place of seizure.

If the cattle be not claimed within seven days from the date of the notice, they shall be sold by public auction by the said officer, or an officer of his establishment deputed for that purpose, at such place and time and subject to such conditions as the Magistrate of the District by general or special order from time to time directs:

Provided that, if any such cattle are, in the opinion of the Magistrate of the District, not likely to fetch a fair price if sold as aforesaid, they may be disposed of in such manner as he thinks fit.

15. Delivery to owner disputing legality of seizure but making deposit.— If the owner or his agent appear and refuse to pay the said fines and expenses, on the ground that the seizure was illegal and that the owner is about to make a complaint under section 20, then , upon deposit of the fines and charges incurred in respect of the cattle, the cattle shall be delivered to him.

STATE AMENDMENT Maharashtra

Amendment of section 15 of Act 1 of 1871.—In the principal Act, section 15 shall be renumbered as sub-section (1) of that section, and after sub-section (1) as so renumbered, the following new sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(2) If on any complaint referred to in sub-section (1) the seizure is declared to be lawful, or if the owner or his agent fails to make such complaint within a period of four weeks from the date of delivery of the cattle to him, the pound keeper of shall require such owner or agent to make a declaration and to deposit the amount of security as required by section 12A. If the owner or his agent fails to make such declaration or to deposit such amount, the cattle delivered to him under sub-section (1) shall be seized for the purpose of section 16.” [Vide Bombay XIII of 1959, s. 7]

16. Procedure when owner refuses or omits to pay the fines and expenses.—If the owner or his agent appear and refuse or omit to pay or (in the case mentioned in section 15) to deposit the said fines and expenses, the cattle, or as many of them as may be necessary, shall be sold by public auction by such officer at such place and time, and subject to such conditions, as are referred to in section 14.

Deduction of fines and expenses.—The fines leviable and the expenses of feeding and watering, together with the expenses of sale, if any, shall be deducted from the proceeds of the sale.

Delivery of unsold cattle and balance of proceeds.—The remaining cattle and the balance of the purchase-money, if any, shall be delivered to the owner or his agent, together with an account showing—

- a. the number of cattle seized,
 - b. the time during which they have been impounded,
 - c. the amount of fines and charges incurred,
 - d. the number of cattle sold,
 - e. the proceeds of sale, and
 - f. the manner in which those proceeds have been disposed of.

Receipts.—The owner or his agent shall give a receipt for the cattle delivered to him and for the balance of the purchase-money (if any) paid to him according to such account.

STATE AMENDMENT Maharashtra

Amendment of section 16 of Act 1 of 1871.—In section 16 of the principal Act, for the first and second paragraphs the following new paragraphs shall be substituted, namely:-

“If the owner or his agent appears and refuses or omits to pay the said fines and expenses and to deposit the said amount of security or (in the case mentioned in section 15) to deposit the said fines, expenses and amount of security or to make a declaration as required by section 12A, the cattle or as many of them as may be necessary, shall be sold by public auction by such officer, at such place and time, and subject to such conditions, as are referred to in section 14, or disposed of in accordance with the provisions therein.

The fines leviable and the expenses of feeding and watering together with the expenses of safe, if any, and the amount of security prescribed under section 12A shall be deducted from the proceeds of the sale.”

[Vide Bombay Act XIII of 1959, s. 8]

17. Disposal of fines, expenses and surplus proceeds of sales.—The officer by whom the sale was made shall send to the Magistrate of the District the fines so deducted.

The charges for feeding and watering deducted under section 16 shall be paid over to the pound-keeper, who shall also retain and appropriate all sums received by him on account of such charges under section 13.

The surplus unclaimed proceeds of the sale of cattle shall be sent to the Magistrate of the District, who shall hold them in deposit for three months, and, if no claim thereto be preferred and established within that period, shall, at its expiry, [8][be deemed to hold them as part of the revenues of the State].

STATE AMENDMENT Maharashtra

Amendment of section 17 of Act 1 of 1871.—In section 17 of the principal Act, after the second paragraph, the following new paragraph shall be inserted, namely:-

“The amount of security required under section 12A shall be deposited with the pound-keeper.”

[Vide Bombay Act XIII of 1959, s. 9]

18. [Application of fines and unclaimed proceeds of sale.] Rep. by the A.O. 1937.
19. Officers and pound-keepers not to purchase cattle at sales under Act.—No officer of police or other officer or pound-keeper appointed under the provisions herein contained shall, directly or indirectly, purchase any cattle at a sale under this Act.

Pound-keepers when not to release impounded cattle.—No pound-keeper shall release or deliver any impounded cattle otherwise than in accordance with the former part of this Chapter, unless such release or delivery is ordered by a Magistrate or Civil Court.

[9][CHAPTER V

COMPLAINTS OF ILLEGAL SEIZURE OR DETENTION

20. Power to make complaints.—Any person whose cattle have been seized under this Act, or, having been so seized, have been detained in contravention of this Act, may, at any time within ten days from the date of the seizure, make a complaint to the Magistrate of the District or any Magistrate authorised to receive and try charges without reference by the Magistrate of the District.

21. Procedure on complaint.—The complaint shall be made by the complainant in person, or by an agent personally acquainted with the circumstances. It may be either in writing or verbal. If it be verbal, the substance of it shall be taken down in writing by the Magistrate.

If the Magistrate, on examining the complainant or his agent, sees reason to believe the complaint to be well founded, he shall summon the person complained against, and make an enquiry into the case.

22. Compensation for illegal seizure or detention.—If the seizure or detention be adjudged illegal, the Magistrate shall award to the complainant, for the loss caused by the seizure or detention, reasonable compensation, not exceeding one hundred rupees, to be paid by the person who made the seizure or detained the cattle together with all fines paid and expenses incurred by the complainant in procuring the release of the cattle,
